

Morels and Microbrews Festival is this Saturday, May 4, 11 a.m.-4 p.m. in Fulton's downtown Brick District. May the 4th Beer With You!

👉👉 Check out these FAQs:

 Do I need a beer tasting ticket to purchase morels or enter the festival?

No! The festival is open to the public. Beer tasting tickets are for required via pre-sale to sample the 40+ craft breweries and distilleries and will not be available at the festival. Only a few left! Purchase here.

 When and where is check-in for beer tasting ticket holders?

Check in starts at 11 a.m. at the big tent at Court. St. and 7th St. where you will receive your glass and 21+ stamp. Beer tasting begins at noon.

 When can I buy fresh and fried morels? How much are they?

Fresh and fried morel sales begin at 11 a.m. See festival map for location. Fried morels are $20/quarter pound. Fresh morels are $25/quarter pound, $40/half pound and $70/pound. Limit 2 pounds/person.

 Are there other beverages available if I'm not doing the beer tasting?

Yes! This year we have a beer truck offering $3 drafts at 11 a.m. of Blue Moon, Yuengling, and Coors Light (beer tasting glasses will not be accepted). Some of the food trucks also sell beverages.

 Is there a limit to how many beers I can sample with my ticket?

Nope! Taste as many as you can/have time for from our more than 40+ breweries and distilleries.

 Is there a homebrewers section this year?

Yes! We have 8 homebrewers this year and there will be voting with bottle caps for your favorites!

 Is the festival dog/kid friendly?

Dogs are welcome as long as they are friendly, and you clean up after them. Same goes for kiddos, but keep in mind it is primarily a beer tasting festival and the streets get very crowded.

 Where should I park?

Parking is available on a first come first served basis. Several parking lots and street parking are located around and near the Brick District.

What should someone needs medical attention?

The first aid tent is located on 6th St. by Smith Moore. There is also a hydration station mid-way down Court St.

?? What if I have other questions?

For more info visit thebrickdistrict.com/more1-microbrews or email fultonbrickdistrict@gmail.com.